JUDGE DONE WITH COURT

Completed Things Earlier This Session Than Ever

SEVERAL CASES FOR JUNE SPECIAL TERM.

Bert Roberts Taken to Reform School This Morning by T. J. Moore.

Judge Reed surely rushed things through this criminal term of circuit court, as yesterday he had tried every case ready for hearing on his docket, and there being nothing further before him, he dismissed the petit jurors for good and let them go to their homes. The grand jury will remain in session until the last of next week to enable them to investigate a number of charges pending.

The judge as he went along sentenced this one and that one to terms in the penitentiary, and yesterday he said he would sentence the balance of them the first of next week so Sheriff John W. Ogilvie will take the bunch off to the prisons, the females going to Frankfort and the males to Eddyville.

In the murder charge against Henry Holwell, colored, being called yesterday morning, the judge continued it over until the special term he will hold the last week of June, at which time also comes up the H. H. Loving killing case. Holwell killed George Travis, colored, at Twelfth and Terrell streets while shooting at another darkey. Absent witnesses was the cause of the postponement yesterday.

There was also continued until the special term the indictment charging J. T. Norflett with getting Grocer Frank Rodfus of Fifth and Jackson streets to cash a check which was worthless. The accused's bond was then reduced to $200.

Frank Mason was acquitted of the charge of obtaining goods by false pretenses. Grocer J. D. Pulliam of Ninth and Tennessee said Mason came to him and claiming he owned a blacksmith shop at Second and Jefferson, and would do horseshoeing and other work for Pulliam, got the latter to sell him some groceries, to be taken out in trade. Mason acquitted himself of the accusation.

Nannie Gray, colored, got one year in the penitentiary on the charge of breaking into the drug store of Joe Gardner at Third and Tennessee Sts., and stealing some money, snuff and other things.

Civil Suits.

Judge Reed extended until the 18th, the time in which bills of evidence and exceptions could be filed in support of the appeals taken, in the suits of H. L. Steyers vs. L. F. Wallace and J. M. Ford, administrators, vs. Paducah City Railway Company.

The sheriff's report of safe was confirmed in the suit of C. L. Greene company against W. D. Cline.

Lawyer Harper was selected the attorney to defend the suit of Sarah Bagwell against Bunyen Bagwell.

Master Commissioner Cecil Reed's reports of sale were confirmed in the following cases, and he made the allowance mentioned in each: Turnbo vs. Brown, $27.60; Charles E. Jennings, administrator of Thomas Robison against the Globe Bank and Trust Company, $25.35; Henry Diehl against Lawrence Dailam, $17; Willie B. Weeks, ex parte, $72.50; Armstrong vs. Armstrong, $25.

Taken to Reform School.

Former Detective T. J. Moore this morning left at 1:40 o'clock for Lexington, Ky., with Bert Roberts, the little fellow who was yesterday in the circuit court given a sentence of one year in that institution for stealing the bicycle of Clyde Baker from in front of The Postal Telegraph Company at Second and Broadway.

One never realizes how ignorant some of our leading citizens are until they are hauled up to testify before an investigating committee.

BANKRUPTCY OF SCHWAB

CLAIM OF WIFE IS ALLOWED BY REFEREE BAGBY.

Referee Decided That Schwab Had Accounted for the $10,000 That Trustee Says He did Not.

In the bankruptcy court yesterday Referee E. W. Bagby made some important orders in the Moses Schwab proceeding.

Regarding the claim of the bankrupt's wife, the referee overruled the exceptions other creditors submitted and ordered it allowed, but she will only share pro rata, as assets bear to liabilities. Her claim is $3,600 and she contends that it is due her for the stock of clothing she turned over to her husband. When Moses and Lee Schwab failed she bought in their stock, and for a long while the business was run in her name, but afterwards she turned it over to her husband, whom she says owes her for it. If Schwab pays out at the rate of fifty cents on the dollar she will get $1,800.

Regarding the claim of Trustee A. E. Boyd that Schwab has not accounted for about $10,000 worth of his property, Referee Bagby dismissed this, he deeming proof sufficient had been introduced to show what Schwab had done with all his holdings. The referee then gave the trustee fifteen days in which to decide whether he will appeal to the United States court at Louisville, the referee's action dismissing the trustee's petition asking that Schwab be compelled to account for this $10,000.

MOUNT TACOMA, RANIER, SPOUTS ASHES AND MUD

North Yakima, Wash., April 12.—Smoke issuing from Mount Ranier can be plainly seen from here, although the mountain is more than ninety miles away. The mountain has been belching forth fire and cinders for three days, and the first reliable report reached here today, from a prospector who was camping near there and was driven off by the fearful rain of ashes.

In a letter Jack Campbell, the prospector, says: "Ranier began to smoke Monday evening, and Tuesday it grew worse, Wednesday ashes and hot mud fell into the camp, and heavy rumblings were heard."

"I had to move Thursday, and the sulphurous smoke which hung over the crater gave indications that Ranier was an active volcano. The rumblings grew more notable and were felt ten miles from the base."

Two years ago the last evidence of an eruption was not nearly so severe as now. There are no residents near the mountain, but the coal prospectors are beginning to flee.

Mount Ranier is one of the highest peaks of the Cascade Mountains, which extend through the central portion of the State of Washington. The height of Mount Ranier is 14,500 feet. It is also known by the name of Mount Tacoma.

Oldest Skipper in World Has Sailed 20,000,000 Miles.

A London paper says Captain Alexander Simpson, of the Aberdeen liner Moravian, has this week completed his seventy-first round voyage to Sydney, a record which it is believed here has no parallel in the mercantile marine.

Captain Simpson computes he has sailed 22,000,000 miles, without a mishap, under the flag of the Aberdeen Line, which he joined in 1865.

CONFEDERATE BAZAAR.

The Children of the Confederacy yesterday opened their Easter bazaar at 520 Broadway instead of at the Paducah Music store at 428 Broadway. The children have many fine things on sale and are being liberally patronized by the public. The 520 Broadway number is where Alderman W. T. Miller has his music house.

ENLARGE PLANT

MAYOR YEISER WILL KEEP BRINGING QUESTION BEFORE BOARDS.

The Light Committee Has Not Yet Met, Although Instructed to Do So Two Weeks Ago.

Mayor Yeiser yesterday said it looked as if the light committee from the city legislative boards, is trying to shelve the proposition to enlarge the city's public plant, but that he intended to continue bringing the matter before every board meeting and see that it was not pushed off to one side, like it looks is being attempted by the "several" committeemen who were in favor of turning the city's plant over to Stone & Webster, but were thwarted in their efforts.

It has now been three weeks since the aldermanic board ordered the light committee to get figures for enlargement of the plant, while the same instruction was given by the council nearly two weeks ago, but despite this fact Chairman Earl Palmer has never yet called the committee together in order this can be done.

One city official who favored "farming out" the plant yesterday said he now saw the people were dead against this, therefore he intended to see that the light committee was compelled to act right away, if they tried to block progressive improvements in this uncalculated manner. He wants this committee to get the figures from supply houses, showing how much it would cost to install additional machinery sufficient to give current for 150 lights more than are now operated. Just as soon as the committee finds out the cost they will make a report back to the full legislative boards that will buy the machinery and make the enlargement.

SECRETARY M'CHESNEY LOSES SALARY ACTION

Frankfort, Ky., April 12.—(Special.)—In the Franklin Circuit court today Judge Stout found for defendant in a case of H. V. McChesney, secretary of state, against S. W. Hager, auditor, in which plaintiff sought to recover salary of $1,000 per annum in addition to his regular salary as secretary. Mr. McChesney sought the additional salary under a legislative act of 1903, placing additional duties upon him in the matter of regulation of corporations. Judge Stout followed the decision of the court of appeals in the case of Finley against Stone, auditor, in finding for defendant.

Excessive Taxation.

Up in Livingston county it appears that the fiscal court made a levy that yields $55,000.00 more than is needed. The Smithland Banner has the following to say about the matter:

The taxpayers of this county will take out of their pockets the neat round sum of $4,008.68, the amount unappropriated, and pay it over to Mr. Bishop to jingle in his pockets, instead of having a chance to keep it till the county needs the money. Why does the court want that much money collected more than it takes to pay the claims against the county, unless it is to blindfold the taxpayers while they "rub in" the lie that the "county is $11,000 in debt?" These figures are taken from the records, and are not mere "frost work and flowers."

GORKY NOT WORRIED ABOUT HIS HEALTH

New York, April 12.—Maxim Gorky gave out a statement today in regard to his health. "I have a slight pulmonary attack," he said, "but it neither causes me inconvenience nor embarrasses me in my work. I have no apprehension as to my condition."

Assesses Fine of $575,749.

Savannah, April 13.—Judge Speer, in the United States court, today sentenced Greene and Gaynor each to a term of four years in the penitentiary and to a fine of $575,749.00, the amount each is charged with having fraudulently obtained from the United States government.

CLASS OF 100

MANY ACCESSIONS TO BE EFFECTED TOMORROW MORNING.

Two Services Will Be Conducted Today At Broadway Methodist Church.

A class of about 100 people will be admitted to membership at the Broadway Methodist church tomorrow morning at 10:45 o'clock, they being the acquisitions secured for the protracted meeting that has been going on for several weeks at this church. They will be admitted by Rev. T. J. Newell, the pastor, and Rev. J. B. Culpepper, immediately following which, at 11 o'clock, the latter preaches the morning sermon tomorrow. At 9:15 o'clock tomorrow morning Rev. Burke Culpepper will preach, and this service will displace the regular Sunday school worship. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon preaching will again be held, also at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night.

Yesterday morning Rev. J. B. Culpepper preached on "Sanctification" while last evening a strong Burke Culpepper delivered a strong sermon on "Sin." Both services were attended by a very large crowd of people.

This morning at 10 o'clock Rev. J. B. Culpepper preaches on "Am I Converted?" There will not be any services this afternoon for the young people and children, but tonight at 7:30 o'clock preaching will again be conducted.

Tomorrow Revs. Culpepper and Dr. Newell will decide how much longer the meeting will be continued.

MAKE THIRD TERM TOUR

Affecting Trip to Be In Response to "Pressure" From the People.

Washington, D. C., April 12.—The real news today is in the statement that President Roosevelt is to make another tour of the country, making Missouri and Michigan his two main objective points, but not restricting the blessing of his presence to them, should the public in general between and behind those regions evince a disposition to receive him.

The announcement, as is usual in these cases, left a loophole for escape, the chief object just at present being to see how the people take it. But it may be predicted that excessive encouragement will not be needed to induce the president to believe that his people want him.

The attacks of the people with muck rakes have grown to proportions such that something ought to be done, and nobody can have more confidence in the persuasiveness of his personal presence than the president has in his.

Would Never Do, of Course. It would not do to lose an election simply for the want of a stumping tour, and if nothing but a stumping tour would win it, we could depend upon our executive to do nothing else between this and 1908.

Persons who know the presidential character will smile at the news, with the ill-natured amusement of those who see their opinions verified; while those who, not knowing, admire him, will be glad that in this one instance he has broken his rule never to waver a hair's breadth from a promise, or to recede an inch from a position once assumed.

As a matter of fact, of course, the president has been on every side of every question or position which could in any way affect his fortunes; his sole stipulation being that the last position he assumes, or course he takes shall be the one which makes him appear as the victorious leader.

LIMP FORM IN BOX CAR

MILTON SCOTT, COLORED, SEEMS TO BE VICTIM OF MURDEROUS ATTACK.

He Was Found Unconscious in a Box Car at Fulton and Sent On to This City Yesterday.

Milton Scott, a negro spectacle peddler, is lying at his home in 825 South Thirteenth street in a comatose condition that will not permit of his telling the manner in which he got beat up and robbed. During a lucid period he mumbled something about being robbed and assaulted, but further than this nothing can as yet be gleaned regarding the circumstances surrounding the unusual occurrence. He was brought here yesterday on the noon passenger train from Fulton, with there pinned to his coat a note, saying he had been found in a box car unconscious. Further than this nothing is known about the case which is being worked on by the authorities.

Scott is about forty-five years of age and resides at the number mentioned on South Thirteenth street. He sells spectacles and about one week since left this city for West Tennessee. This was the last heard of him until he was brought back on the train yesterday in a semi-conscious condition, with his head beaten up.

The conductor of the passenger train said that he was placed aboard at Fulton, and that the parties putting him on said Scott had been found unconscious in a box car sitting out in the railroad yards at that point. It seemed that someone had assaulted him, beat his head nearly off, took his money, and then dumped the limp form into the freight car where it remained until found by the yard people.

Colored people of Fulton made up money enough to pay his way here, and in his critical condition he was placed aboard, with the note pinned on his clothing, and brought to Paducah. He was put off at the Union depot, and afterwards carried to his home where City Physician Bass dressed the injured head that was gashed badly, while it looks like his jaw was broken by some hard instrument.

Scott comes to himself once in a while, but not yet sufficiently to tell where he was assaulted and pitched into the freight car. He said enough to convince the family that this is how it happened. It is not known, either, how much was gotten from him.

The Fulton people did not know where he came from, while the conductor of the passenger train that brought him to this city at noon yesterday, knows nothing more than told by the Fultonites. The city police and special officers for the railroad, are working on the case.

BUILDING ADDITION

One to be Placed to Storehouse at 112 South Second Street.

ms .ifro .-t-bo w,kof twyp wpy Contractor George Katterjohn was yesterday awarded the contract to construct the one story brick addition to be placed on the rear of 112 South Second street, which property is owned by Joe Friedman and Max B. Nahm. The addition will cost about $2,000, and when the building is done Mr. Louis Levy, proprietor of the Model clothing store, will move into it.

NOTHING DOING.

Yesterday Was Friday and 13th of the Month.

Yesterday was Friday and the 13th of the month also, but nothing unusual happened, much to the dissatisfaction of the skeptical who lay everything unfortunate either on Friday, or the 13th, hence when both come together they get discomfited if something great does not develop to accredit this doubly unlucky day with.

LEWD WOMEN ORDINANCE

A TEST OF IT WILL BE MADE IN THE POLICE COURTS.

R. E. Craftin Given Continuance of Case Charging Him with Stealing Brasses—Police Court.

It is probable that a test will now be made of the ordinance which provides for a fine and imprisonment in the city jail for permitting lewd women to enter a saloon and for any proprietor or clerk who permits them to enter. Yesterday morning in the police court when certain warrants were read, interested parties asked Acting Judge Dave Cross to continue the actions over to next Monday and this was done. The warrants were those charging Fanny Wilson and Violet Lee, of West Court street with entering the saloon of William Gray on South Fourth street, and Ben Allen under the New Richmond hotel. In the same warrant Gray and his bartender John Laaham are charged with permitting the dissolute characters to come in, while Ben Allen and his bartender, Sherman Mills, are charged with allowing the same thing at their place of business. For being drunk and disorderly that night the two women were fined $5 and costs, as were the two young men they were with, Richard Robertson and White Thompson.

R. E. Craftin was given a continuance until today of the warrant charging him with stealing brasses from the Illinois Central railroad and selling it to John Minor for $3.20.

There was continued until today the warrant charging Neal Long, painter, with obtaining board under false pretenses from Mrs. Myrtle Atkinson.

Addie Montague, colored, was fined $3 and costs for trying to strike her husband, Fred Montague. A fine of $20 and costs was assessed against Mathew Scott on the charge of gambling, while Oscar Cloran was fined $1 and costs for being drunk.

MARSHAL OUT SERVING PAPERS

DEPUTY WADE BROWN RETURNED FROM PRINCETON LAST NIGHT.

Mount's Lawyers Have Yet Done Nothing Towards Asking For New Trial.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Wade Brown returned last evening from Marion, Princeton and other points where he has been the past few days serving different papers on parties summoned to appear for various reasons before the spring term of United States court which meets here next Tuesday for a three days session.

Mount's New Trial.

The lawyers for Willis Mount have not made any decision yet regarding the application for a new trial they are contemplating asking the court for. Mount was given his seventeen years last week, and the attorneys have the right to make a motion for a new trial anytime before court adjourns, which is the Serve Remainder of Time.

Will Childress, colored, was arrested yesterday and locked up in the county jail to serve out 57 days remaining of his sentence for cutting another in sudden heat and passion.

SELL PROPERTY OF CHILDREN

MRS. SHERRELL WANTS TO REINVEST MONEY FOR LITTLE ONES.

Jesse Wicks Sued the City of Paducah for $1,000 Damages, on Account of Cesspool.

Yesterday in the circuit court Hattie Sherrell, for Bibian and Harold Rives, filed a friendly suit against Bibian and Harold Rives, wherein plaintiff asks that the court order sold some property belonging to the children, so the money can be re-invested for their benefit. The little ones are the children of Mrs. Sherrell, who has married again. These children were by the late Pet Rives of the Maxon's mill section of the county.

Wants Divorce.

Myrtle McCormick Amis filed suit for divorce against George Amis. They married February 10th, 1903 and resided together until February 1st, 1904 at which time defendant abandoned her. She claims he is a drunkard and been guilty of immorality, and besides the divorce wants restoration of her maiden name of Myrtle McCormick.

Eyesight Injured.

William Powley filed suit for $10,000 damages against the Paducah Coopersage company. Powley was employed at this plant and October 2nd, 1905 a piece of wood flew from the head jointing machine at which he was working, and struck his eye. By this the sight was badly injured. He claims it was negligence of the coopersage people in not keeping the machine in good condition, that caused the accident.

Sued the City.

Jessie Wicks filed suit against the city of Paducah for $1,000 damages on the ground that her property, and health of family, were injured by the cesspool that has existed for a long time in the hollow standing in center of the block surrounded by Third, Harrison, Fourth, and Madison streets. The hollow runs from Third to Fourth, between Madison and Harrison, and formerly was drained of water through the sewer pipe leading underneath Third towards the river. The sewer pipe got filled over with dirt and stopped up. This leaves the hollow filled with a stagnated pool of water the year round. Jessie Wicks owns property that backs up to the pool, and she claims the unhealthy cesspool has hurt her property, and health of her family, therefore sues the city for damages.

Street Car Company Sued.

J. P. Thornton sued the Paducah Traction company for $250. Thornton was driving down South Sixth street December 28th, 1905, when one of the cars struck his rig, broke same, threw him out, and caused painful injuries.

Property Controversy.

W. F. Grief filed suit against Maggie Seibert and others to settle a controversy regarding some property over which they are contending.

Sued on Note.

William Katterjohn and John Rock, administrators of George Rock, filed suit against J. W. Puckett for $120 claimed due on three notes Puckett executed to the late George Rock during life of the latter, and which notes have never yet been paid, although given for four months time. The notes were executed May 13th, 1904, and the plaintiffs ask that property on the south side of Adams near Seventh street be sold and money taken to pay off the notes.

Sued on $1,000 Note.

The Cope County State Bank filed suit against DeWitt C. Roberts, John Leopold and Joseph Harth for $1,000 claimed due on a note defendants executed to plaintiff February 27th, 1905, agreeing to take up the paper in three months.

After Forty Years.

The other day at Fulton, Ky., C. M. Rutler and Deputy Sheriff Chas. Thomas, of Obion county, Tenn., came face to face on the streets of Fulton and recognized each other after being separated for forty years. These men wore confederate gray and stood side by side in many of the bloodiest battles.

But few people would know your troubles if you knew enough to keep them under cover.

LADS WERE ALL SENT BACK HOME

MARSHAL McCULLOM OF KUTTAWA TELEPHONED
This Order.

Their Father Says They Ran Away
From Home, Instead of Him
Shipping Them.

Yesterday morning it developed that the little Doooms boys of near Kuttawa had yarned when they claimed to the police here that their father virtually ran them away from home by telling them if they wanted to skip-out they could do so, and he would not object. It was learned by a long distance message over the telephone yesterday morning from Kuttawa that the boys all ran away from home.

Marshal McCullom of Kuttawa telephoned Captain Frank Harlan of the force here to pick up the boys and send them back home. Mr. Harlan replied that the boys said their father ran them away from home. Marshal McCullom said that was wrong, as Mr. Doooms came into Kuttawa yesterday morning looking for the lads, and was standing beside McCullom while he was telephoning here.

The boys were all bundled up on the train yesterday morning and returned home, their father re-implementing this city for the railroad fare paid out for them.

The lads had been given lodging at the city hall Thursday night and were right there when the telephone message came yesterday morning, so were on hand to be shipped back homeward.

AGE OF ENGLISH BEAUTY.

Both Men and Women of the Upper Classes Are Growing Better Looking.

The golden age of English beauty is said to have arrived.

Physiognomists, physical culture experts and the beauty specialists who congregate in Bond street see an extraordinary change for the better in the national looks. Day by day they say the people are growing more beautiful.

"Both men and women of the upper classes," said one of the leading beauty specialists in London, "are improving in feature, in contouring and in physique. Nowhere in the world can you see such handsome men and women as are to be met any morning in Piccadilly or Hyde Park."

"Women are attaching an increasing importance to the necessity of preserving and perfecting their looks."

"Powder and paint are out of date. Massage, electricity and muscular manipulation have taken their place. Complexions have improved because of the rage for fresh air, and the carriage has been immensely benefited by physical culture."

"Men are quite as eager as women to cultivate good looks. I have on my books an ex-cabinet minister who sought my advice concerning a little bald spot on the head."

"Not only is the modern man and woman better looking, but there is a determination to retain good looks as long as possible. A few days ago I removed a few superfluous hairs from the face of an old lady of 78."

THE PACKER OF WORDS.

Man Who Makes a Specialty of Reducing Long Messages to the Fewest Words.

Professional packers of furniture and household effects are common enough nowadays, but the professional packer of words is a man who has developed a new trade.

It frequently happens that a firm not accustomed to using the cable finds it necessary to send a long message to some agent or customer. Were they in the habit of using the cable frequently they would save some form of private code or one of the codes sold commercially. Not being provided with that sort of thing, their only hope of saving on the heavy tolls is to take the message to a word packer.

The packer familiarizes himself with the contents of the message and proceeds to reduce it to the fewest possible number of words. Sometimes he is a former newspaper correspondent, accustomed to skeletonizing his dispatches; again he may merely have an aptitude for clipping out unnecessary words. In any event he is usually able to effect a decided reduction in a long message, and where the cablegram is intended for transmission to some distant point where a dollar or more a word is charged, his ten per cent. fee is no small sum. Even after the clerks have tried their "pretties" hands at the message before sending it to the packer he is able to cut it down by a third.

INCREASING EXPORT TRADE.

Special American Bureau Established by American Representative at Prague.

Under the above heading is seen this in Der Slinkafer, of Berlin:

"The American consul at Prague, Urban J. Ledoux, has, on the pattern of a chamber of commerce, established a special bureau called the commercial intelligence department of the Prague consulate, affording every opportunity for the registration and examination of catalogues of all kinds, and so classified that importers and exporters can be posted immediately upon the possibility of their doing business."

"The catalogues, prices current, discount sheets, etc., must naturally be so arranged that anybody seeking information can find it at once. Catalogues without prices or discount lists would be useless; moreover, the weights and measures should be reduced to the standards adopted in the country."

Trying South Paws.

Manager Kolb of Vincennes is trying out two left-handers, Wallace and Stauter, and he is likely to turn one of them loose. If perchance the can should fall to Wallace's lot, it would not be a bad idea for Manager Berryhill to give him a trial with the Canaries. Wallace is young and undoubtedly has the making of a slab artist of high degree if he gets under the eye and direction of a capable coach. If the Journal Gazette is not misinformed, Wallace was the star man with the Sikeston, Mo., team last season, the team that trimmed Cairo last Sunday.—Mattoon Journal-Gazette.

Great Pugilistic Tournament Planned for July the Fourth.

San Francisco, Cal., April 11.—Arrangements are making for the greatest pugilistic tournament in years, to be held in Frisco, July 4. Purses of more than $100,000 will be offered if the plans do not miscarry. The project depends on whether or not the boxing trust fails to adjust its differences, both factions being determined to pull off a series of championship events. Eddie Graney says: "I can't speak for the trust, but I can myself. I simply will go ahead and make my matches for the Fourth of July. I can get Gans and Nelson, and I don't think any other club can match them."

Coffroth was not excited when apprised of Graney's intention. He observed:

"What is to prevent other championship fights being pulled off in San Francisco on the same day? I don't know of anything to stop me. If Graney can frame up a match I think I can rig one fully as attractive. What do you think of Sam Berger and Jack O'Brien for a day-light fight on the Fourth? They are heavyweights and would fight for the championship of the world. That match would overshadow Nelson and Gans."

Coffroth also offers to raise Tom O'Rourke's bid for Jeffries. He said today:

"I am willing to offer for the big fellow $120,000 to fight Hart, Burns, Kaufman, Fitzsimmons, O'Brien and Ruhlin. If these fights ever should take place, the only arena in which to hold them is at Colma."

WOULD PLAY

NEW YORK TEAMS.

Chicago Baseball Men Have a Great Scheme for Big Games.

It is probable there will be a series of baseball games at the end of the coming season between the four leading semiprofessional teams of Chicago and the same number from Greater New York. John G. Hemmer, a prominent bowling and baseball man of Chicago, is one of the promoters of the movement and it is his opinion that the playing of these games would be a great thing for the sport in both cities.

"It is claimed by some of the eastern papers that the article of ball put up by the New York semiprofessional teams surpasses that of the Chicago aggregation," said Hemmer yesterday afternoon. "Our plan is to arrange for a series of games at the end of the season between four of the leading clubs of New York and Chicago. In this way it can be determined which cities play the best baseball."

"Each section could spend four or five days in the other's city, thus making it a home-and-home series. The teams could play each other twice and the combined percentages decide the championship. The four leading teams in Chicago could be determined upon by Sept. 1 easily."

pected tomorrow. Manager Berryhill.

Catcher Schissell will arrive from Indianapolis at 12:25 today and will quarter at the park. Diehl, Vance, Cooper and Pickering are also ex-hill has shown his confidence in the ability and experience of "Happy Jack" Wilkinson by selecting him to coach and drill the men during his absence. The work today will be continued at Urban park, which is now in better condition than early in the week.—Mattoon Star.

When College Days are Over.

Manager Kolb very much regrets the fact that McClellan, who has signed a Vincennes contract and who has reported for duty, will not be able to be with the team until the last of June. McClellan is attending college, and will leave today to resume his studies. He will join the team as soon as his college closes for the season. He is considered a fast man by Manager Kolb.—Vincennes Commercial.

Ready for Practice.

Coombs, a pitcher, and Mahron, an infielder arrived in the city last night to join the local baseball squad. Brady, outfielder, Fox, Large, Connaughton and Lindley, pitchers, and Neal, infielder, are all here, and will go out to work out this afternoon. The bunch will make quite an array, and no doubt many fans will journey to the park to see the stunts. Allen, a pitcher from Havana, is the only man who has not reported. There was some misunderstanding about his ticket, but he probably will be here this evening.—Jacksonville Courier.

Boston 3 Louisville 2.

Jack McGord was in old-time form yesterday at Eclipse park, when he held Collins' former world's champions to six hits and a 3 to 2 score. The little left-hander dished out a variety of beans which was not very satisfactory to the Boston tribe, but they managed, with the aid of Substitute Batter Rising, to get away with enough of his offerings to squeeze in a victory.

Norwood Gibson was on the mound for the first five innings, after which Harris, the Fall River recruit, shot them over. In the sixth inning the Colonels became familiar with Harris' curves, successive singles by Sullivan, Brashear, Quinlan and Stoner driving home two markers.

Billy Hallman showed his speed, making a neat running catch, besides stealing second on his only attempt. Danny Kerwin got his usual two safeties, and held everything that came his way in right.—Louisville Times.

Today's Game.

The game today between the Washingtons of St. Louis, and Manager Lloyd's team will be well worth seeing. The April shower of yesterday put the grounds in first class condition. A good crowd ought to be on hand to encourage the team and its backers.

Lloyds Indians vs. St. Louis.

All Paducah fans and all Paducah ladies who feel an interest in the great American game will be paid for their visit to Wallace park this afternoon. Game to be called at 3:30 p. m. The Washingtons of St. Louis are expected in on the 8:45 train this morning.

We need a FREE AGENT in every town and can offer an opportunity to make money to suitable young men who apply at once.

$8.50 PUNCTURE-PROOF TIRES ONLY $4.80

Regular Price $8.50 per pair. To introduce We will sell you a Sample Pair for Only $4.80 (CASH WITH ORDER $4.80)

NO MORE TROUBLE FROM PUNCTURES. Result of 15 years experience in tire making. No danger from THORNS, CACTUS, PINS, NAILS, TACKS or GLASS.

Serious punctures, like intentional knife cuts, can be vulcanized like any other tire. Two Hundred Thousand pairs now in actual use. Over Seventy-five Thousand pairs sold last year.

DESCRIPTION: Made in all sizes. It is lively and easy riding, very durable and lined inside with a special quality of rubber, which never becomes porous and which closes up small punctures without allowing the air to escape. We have hundreds of letters from satisfied customers stating that their tires have only been pumped up once or twice in a whole season. They weigh no more than an ordinary tire, the puncture resisting qualities being given by several layers of this, specially prepared fabric on the tread. That "Holding Back" sensation commonly felt when riding on asphalt or soft roads is overcome by the "Baked Weave" tread which prevents all air from being squeezed out between the tire and the road thus overcoming all suction. The regular price of these tires is $8.50 per pair, but for advertising purposes we are making a special factory price to the rider of only $4.80 per pair. All orders shipped same day letter is received. We ship C.O.D. on approval. You do not pay a cent until you have examined and found them strictly as represented.

We will allow a cash discount of 5 percent (thereby making the price $4.55 per pair) if you send FULL CASH WITH ORDER; and enclose this advertisement. We will also send one nickel plated brass hand pump and two Sampson metal puncture closers on full paid orders (these metal puncture closers to be used in case of intentional knife cuts or heavy gashes). Tires to be returned at OUR expense if for any reason they are not satisfactory on examination.

We are perfectly reliable and money sent to us is as safe as in a bank. Ask your Postmaster, Banker, Express or Freight Agent or the Editor of this paper about us. If you order a pair of these tires, you will find that they will ride easier, run faster, wear better, last longer and look finer than any tire you have ever used or seen at any price. We know that you will be so well pleased that when you want a bicycle you will give us your order. We want you to send us a small trial order at once, hence this remarkable tire offer.

COASTER-BRAKES built-up wheels, saddles, pedals, parts and repairs, and everything in the bicycle line are sold by us at half the usual prices charged by dealers and repair men. Write for our big SUNDRY catalogue.

DO NOT WAIT but write us a postal today. DO NOT THINK OF BUYING a bicycle or a pair of tires from anyone until you know the new and wonderful offers we are making. It only costs a postal to learn everything. Write it NOW.

Routing the Grafters and Boodlers.

The greatest curse to America is partisan politics. Partisan politics means machine politics which is synonymous with corrupt politics. In order to have corrupt politics there must be corrupt men. Corrupt men have no regard for honesty, decency or fairness. They are ready to rob a member of their own party of an office, nor do they stop in their efforts to rob the people until the penitentiary stares them in the face. They themselves are for sale to the highest bidder and try to sell every office or appointment at their disposal. Where the democratic party is in power such cattle are democrats and where the republicans are in power they are republicans. They are anything in politics that will enable them to get their hands on the offices and the taxpayer's money. They howl for party regularity and censure and denounce all newspapers and men who have the manhood to speak truthfully and plainly about them. Such a gang are grafters, boodlers and get office through corrupt methods, and all honest men should unite and defeat every mother's son of them every time they stick up their heads for an office. If the democratic party wants the support of honest men and honest newspapers, that party must see to it that no grafters, boodlers, notorious drunkards or immoral men are put on the ticket. Honest men think more of their self respect than they do of party loyalty. The young men who are growing into voters are very apt to turn to the party that offers the cleanest men. There may be something in the issues between the parties, outside of local elections, but when a party foists men of questionable character on the ticket, it may expect to see the rank and file vote for men rather than measures. For no matter how pure and good a measure may be, corrupt men are not the ones with whom to entrust the duty of carrying them out.

Governor Folk as a democrat repudiated a democratic ticket that was weighted down with boodlers and grafters, and President Roosevelt urged the defeat of republican thieves and boodlers in Pennsylvania and Ohio. In commenting on the denunciation of the machine and corrupt politicians of the independence of the voters the Louisville Evening Post most truthfully says:

"We note various expressions in the senate and outside the senate, chiefly through from men subjects of a party machine, to the effect that the present movement for better standards of public life is the result of hysteria; that the American people have lost their bearings and that they are in danger of doing grave injustice to certain leaders, notably, we suppose, to men like Boss Cox, of Cincinnati, and like Boss Durham, of Philadelphia.

"The American people are slow to wrath. They rarely do injustice to the men who have been plundering them; but history shows that the perfunctory expressions of approval for the moral beatitudes do not deter the men with their arms in the public treasury from scheme of continued plunder. It takes something like a cyclone in politics to sweep such men from their entrenched positions.

"It becomes the American people, therefore, at times to be angry, or, if the gentlemen who are acting as the censor of the public conscience prefer the phrase, to be hysterical. Any community had better be hysterical than 'corrupt and contented.' It is difficult to understand the cool indifference of such critics, in the light of the exhibitions of corruption made during the past few years, not only in connection with public life, but in connection with the high walks of commercial life.

"When Secretary Taft went to Ohio and called upon the civic conscience of that people to make no compromise with the forces of unrighteousness, was the secretary hysterical? The time to rebuke that course was when Secretary Taft spoke. He spoke for all the forces that make for the redemption of modern life from the tremendous power of materialism. In response to his appeal the citizens of Cincinnati overthrew the political oligarchy which for years has been robbing their treasury and debauching their public servants.

"No doubt, Secretary Taft was hysterical; no doubt, the independent voters of Cincinnati were hysterical, and they carried their hysteria to the point of breaking down party barriers, destroying the defense of the political boss; today they are compelling the beneficiaries of systematic crimes to disgorge.

"The story of reform in Cincinnati is the story of reform in Philadelphia, in Milwaukee. We believe that it is a story highly creditable to the intelligence and to the moral character and to the self control of the American people. We see in it the very best assurance of the perpetuity of American institutions.

"It is not true that these reformers, practical or impractical, sober, sensible leaders or hysterical agitators, have impugned the character of all men in the public service. It is not true that they have brought a blanket indictment against all public officials. On the contrary, a large part of the inspiration of this movement comes from men in office who have had the courage to declare the actual facts in the face of warnings from party associates. Without President Roosevelt's countenance, without the assistance of the mayor of Philadelphia, without the admirable career and continued labors of Gov. Folk, the work of cleansing American political life, done during the past twelve months, would have been utterly impossible.

For a number of years The Register has pointed out that the sentiment in this city for the enforcement of the law has been growing, and that it would be only a matter of time before the reaction would set in. These warnings were resented by certain people, but no doubt they now admit that we were not mistaken. A great change is slowly but surely taking place in Paducah, and unless all people who are disposed to ignore the law do not of their own volition observe the law, they may expect to see radical steps taken to compel them to obey the laws. In this country no man can have the privilege to violate laws and enjoy that privilege very long. The majority of the people stand for law and order, and the majority rules. It sometimes takes the people a good while to act but when they do start in to reform a city, they generally make a good job of it.

Some of the Blackburn prophets of last year, fresh from a crushing defeat, have opened up for business once more at the old stand, and are predicting that Senator McCreary will sweep the state for re-election in 1908. As the aforesaid prophets contributed so largely to the defeat of Blackburn, we begin to suspect that the machine crowd are putting up the prophets to talk for the other fellow. If Senator McCreary really intends to get into the race, his first step should be to repudiate the Blackburn prophets. The Register is not in politics, but it is in a position to judge the public sentiment and as between a certain element that is fighting the machine, and the machine itself, the average democrat in Kentucky is quite indifferent as to which side wins.

The United States not to be outdone by Italy in the way of a volcano has touched off Mount Ranier in the state of Washington, which, according to reports, has been belching flames, smoke and cinders for three days.

SPEIGHT EXONERATED

By Postoffice Investigation on Charge of Selling His Influence.

Washington, April 12.—The post-office department has completely exonerated J. C. Speight, of Mayfield, who was charged with selling his influence as one of the department's advisers in the appointments of postmasters in his congressional district. A most thorough investigation has been conducted by the department, and its finding is that Speight's conduct with the department has been in all instances in the highest degree creditable.

One of the rare and strange curiosities in the triple menageries of Cole Brothers United shows, which are scheduled to give an afternoon and evening performance Friday April 27 in Paducah is a wild black Bactrian camel. Taller than a four-footed man-eating animal, the beast is justly called the most titanic humped marvel ever exhibited. Agents for Cole Brothers made the capture near the Lake of Lob Nor, a section sometimes termed 'the unfinished regions on the roof of the old world.' As far back as the subject can be traced, this is the first wild camel ever brought to this country and the only black one ever seen anywhere in public. Made captive last December it is just as wild today as it was when at liberty and experienced animal tamers unhesitatingly voice the opinion that no amount of kindness or harsh treatment will ever subdue it. It is an exceptionally fine specimen, its huge towering body being covered with a heavy growth of long hair as black as the feathers of the blackest crow. Its limbs are large, and powerful and a mad elephant can not cause more trouble and damage than this giant when its temper is aroused. It already has a record as a disabler of men, having recently sent three of its keepers in one day to the hospital in Birmingham, Ala. Every precaution, however, is taken to guard visitors against harm in Cole Brothers' menageries, the camel being kept alone in a secure and strongly built enclosure around which armed guards are ever on duty.

WILL LOCATE OUT WEST

MR. JESSE G. CURD NOW PREPARING TO DO THIS.

Has Just Returned From Bokoshe Which Was Very Pleasing to Him, As Was Spiro.

Postman Jesse G. Curd of the postoffice here, is preparing to resign his position and go to Bokoshe, Indian Territory to locate. He expects to get away within the next two or three weeks.

Mr. Curd has been out in that territorial city for the past several weeks looking over the field and finds one of the most flourishing towns to be discovered anywhere. He is greatly pleased with that place and will shortly hand in his resignation, and depart for Bokoshe to take up his home.

While out there recently Mr. Curd made arrangements to start up two newspaper plants, one at Bokoshe and the other at Spiro, which is a thriving town only a few miles from the other place. He will himself start that publication for Bokoshe, while a stock company is now being organized by the parties he has interested for the Spiro paper. He expects to receive word tomorrow from his associates of the latter place, informing him of what progress has been made since he came back home the first of this week. Word from the Spiro people determines when he will leave here.

Both towns have sprung up rapidly and are growing at a rapid pace, with a bright future before them. Mr. Curd believes it is a matter of only a few years until they are among the largest cities of that territory.

One of the substitute carriers in the local postoffice will take his position.

UNRULY GUEST

JOHN VERNON LOCKED UP BY THE POLICE LAST NIGHT.

Matthew Scott, Colored, Now Has the Charge of Robbery Staring Him in the Face.

John Vernon, of Cincinnati came to the city yesterday, and registered at the New Richmond hotel. While in the dining room last evening at supper, he became displeased at something, and leaving the table went downstairs to the office to see Proprietor Bud Dale. Vernon was intoxicated and during a heated conversation called Mr. Dale a vile name. At this the latter smacked Vernon who rushed out of the office, and in departing smashed one of the large glasses in the door with his walking cane. Officers Johnson and Rogers got after Vernon and he was caught a short distance away and arrested. Being unable to give bond Vernon was locked up.

Homeless Boy and Girl.

George Bolton and Minnie Davis, two small colored children, were arrested yesterday by officers and placed in the lockup to be looked after. They are about twelve years of age and do not seem to have any home, just rambling around and stopping at first one place and then another. The authorities will see what can be done for them. They were found down about Twelfth and Trimble streets by former detective T. J. Moore, who notified Captain Harlan and the patrol wagon was sent for them.

Breach of the Peace.

Kittie Thomas, colored, was arrested on the charge of breach of the peace, by Officers Hurley and Singery. It is claimed she had trouble with her next door neighbor, a negress named O'Neal out on South Tenth street.

Robbery Charged.

Matthew Scott, colored, was locked up Thursday night on the charge of engaging in a game of craps. Now yesterday another warrant was issued against him, this one charging Scott with robbing Alonzo Pollard, colored, of a watch. The contention is that the two were in the game, Scott went broke and pawned his $35 watch to Pollard, who says that after they left the game Scott held him up and made him give back the timepiece.

SMALL LOSS.

The Fire in Jennings' Office was Caused by Combustion.

Yesterday morning a brief mention only was made in these columns about the fire which visited the office of Messrs. Charles E. Jennings and William B. Walters at the Fraternity Building, adjoining The Register office. Brevity of the notice was occasioned by the late hour, prestime. It develops that a rag saturated with alcohol and other liquids, caused spontaneous combustion and set fire to the office. The composition had been used to clean some furniture, and rag placed away in a pigeon hole in a desk the day before. The loss to the office furniture was about $50 while the plate glass in the front window was broken, and walls badly damaged to the extent of $250, making the total loss of about $300 fully covered with insurance. Sergeant Noyes of the United States recruiting office here was passing and discovering the fire, rushed in and got the private fire hose in the building hall. Smashing the office glass door, he turned in the stream and had out the blaze by time the department arrived.

THIRD WARD DONE.

Mr. Henry Nunn is Now in the

Fourth Ward With Enumeration

Mr. Henry Nunn, the school census enumerator for the Third and Fourth Wards, has completed the Third and is now up to Tennessee street in the Fourth. In the Third he got twenty names more than turned in last year, and expects to make a still larger increase in the Fourth. Altogether thus far he has prepared about 1,400 names.

The balance of the enumerators are working along rapidly and all expect to be done the last of next week.

ORDINANCES IN BOOK FORM

HON. E. H. PURYEAR EMPLOYED BY THE CITY TO DO THE WORK.

There Will Be Issued New Book, Containing All the Laws That Are Prevalent.

Hon. Edward H. Puryear, the well known attorney and former city solicitor, was last evening during the meeting of the judiciary committee of the legislative boards, employed to get up a revision of the city ordinances resolutions and all laws. He will charge the municipality $750 for this work that will be in his hands until completed and the books turned over to the officials.

The city passes so many new ordinances and revokes so many old ones that every few years a new book has to be gotten out. The last issue in bookform of the laws of this city, was issued March, 1904 by The Register, and it contained all the laws then in force. Now many of those old ordinances have been revoked, and new ones adopted, therefore the boards want a new book of ordinances issued, publishing the bills that are effective, and eliminating those repealed.

The judiciary committee entered into an agreement with Mr. Puryear, and will report their action to the full board meetings next week for confirmation, which will be given. Attorney Puryear will then enter upon the work of compiling the laws that are in force, get them in proper shape, and then have the council and aldermen call for bids from the printing houses. On the book being issued Mr. Puryear sees that it is in completed and correct form before it is accepted. His fee is $750 alone, while it cannot be estimated what the entire work will cost until it is seen how much printing work is attached thereto.

Lawyer Puryear is in a better position than any other to revise the laws and get out the book, as he served for several years as city solicitor, and this position made it incumbent upon him to keep in closer touch with the municipal ordinances than any other person; therefore it is believed he can excel any other with the undertaking that is a most important one.

TAKES EIGHT HOURS TO CHARGE THE JURY.

Savannah, Ga., April 13.—Judge Emery Speer at 12 o'clock last night concluded his charge to the Green and Gaynor jury and the fate of the contractors charged by the government with frauds amounting to more than $1,500,000 now rests with the jurors, who for three months have listened to evidence and arguments.

Again last night the court-room was crowded with spectators, so keen has been the interest in the interest in the case. The charge of Judge Speer was of such length that he required the closest attention was paid by the audience. There has been much speculation as to the time the jury will consume in its deliberations, but there is naught upon which a prediction can be based as to when the announcement of its verdict will be made. The court will be prepared to receive it whenever the jury may be ready to announce it.

JUDGMENT CONFIRMED

F. A. HIGGINS GETS $1,475 FROM THE N. C. & ST. L.

Lawyers Oliver & Oliver Have Lost Only Three Cases Before Appellate Court.

Attorneys Oliver & Oliver have received word from the court of appeals at Frankfort, Ky., informing them of their victory in the damage suit of F. A. Higgins against the N. C. & St. L. railroad. Charley Wheeler is on the losing side, he representing the road. The victory lies in the fact that the appellate bench confirmed the action of the Marshall county circuit court where Higgins got $1,475 damages against the road.

One day Higgins was driving across the railroad track half a mile out of Benton, when a N. C. & St. L. train came bowling along, and striking his outfit, smashed the wagon, injured the horses and badly hurt Higgins who was pitched out and thrown quite a distance.

Higgins brought suit against the road for $1,750 damages, and got judgment at Benton for $1,175. The railroad carried the litigation to the appellate bench and there again lost, as Higgins won the second time.

Lawyers Oliver & Oliver have a record rarely if ever equalled by any attorneys the country over, as regards winning litigations. Out of about eighty actions carried to the court of appeals, which is the highest tribunal in the commonwealth, Mr. George Oliver has never yet lost a case, while out of about seventy-five he had to that bench, Attorney Mike Oliver has lost only three during his entire legal career. This is something seldom falling to the lot of an attorney anywhere and shows they come pretty near knowing the law thoroughly in every instance where they contend for a point.

KELLEY'S SHORTAGE

The Master Commissioner of Trigg Shy $6,000—Judge Cook, of Murray, Says That Statement That He Owes Kelley Is Untrue.

Mayfield, Ky., April 12.—John Kelley, former master commissioner under Judge Thomas Cook, is short in his account, something like the sum of $6,000 in Trigg county. His bond was made by a guaranty company, which is demanding an immediate settlement. Kelley claims that an unfortunate illness in his family caused the $5,000 expenditure, so say his friends here, and his consequent raid on the public funds and the money of widows and orphans. Kelley claims he has money out which he cannot collect. Kelley is now county attorney. Judge Cook says that the report that he owed Kelley money, which might be applied on this shortage, is untrue. Mayfield Monitor.

Energetic Boys.

Among the industrious young men growing up in this county are Sam, aged 11, and Fred, aged 13, sons of Joe E. Killough, of Lowes. These boys brought a load of tobacco containing 760 pounds to the city Wednesday and placed with the Association. The weed was very good and will bring them with an average of over five cents a pound. Mayfield Messenger.

Professor E. G. Payne of the city schools, is expected back today from Frankfort where he attended the meeting of the state commission that has charge of locating the state normal colleges. He is a member of the body.

MT. VESUVIUS ENTERTAINMENT

MRS. W. C. SCOFIELD IS PREPARING TO GIVE BENEFIT RECITAL.

She Is Pupil of Senor Marescalchi Who Is Coming to Aid of His Distressed Countrymen.

Since Mt. Vesuvius has wrought such ruin and destruction over in Italy at many places in this country funds are being raised, to be sent the unfortunate people residing close by the volcano, to relieve their distressed condition to which they were reduced by the ravages of the famous mount.

Senor Marescalchi, the famous Italian singer and instructor of Chicago is having a number of benefit entertainments given at the Windy City and other points, and has written Mrs. W. C. Scofield of here to see if she could not give a similar affair, the money derived to be sent to Italy. Mrs. Scofield studied the several years under the famous vocal instructor, and realizing the noble use to which the money is to be put, is now arranging for an entertainment that will be given at The Kentucky, if that playhouse can be procured at the time desired.

Senor Marescalchi has many friends here in this city, who will liberally patronize the event, that will comprise the very best local talent, both vocal and instrumental.

CITY TAX BILLS

CITY CLERK BAILEY AND ASSISTANT WORKING HARD AT TASK.

City Engineer Washington Has Gotten Sewerage Inspector, and Considering a Concrete Man.

City Clerk Henry Bailey and his assistant Henry M. Enders, continue daily their work of making out the bills against every property owner of this city, showing how much municipal taxes these owners of lots and buildings owe Paducah. There are eight thousand of the accounts to be made out and it will take several weeks yet to complete the task, when the bills are turned over to City Auditor, Alexander Kirkland to be checked over and see if correct.

The last of next week there will be published the delinquent list, showing what city property owners have not paid their taxes for 1905.

City Inspectors.

HUBBY'S HARANGUE.

"No, my dear, I am in no condition to go out again to-night. You seem to forget that all day long I have been on my feet, talking insurance to people until I'm hoarse, and all so that you can wear good clothes and live in a comfortable home. I haven't taken you out for seven weeks, and you're sick of sitting around doing the mending and wishing you were dead!"

"By hokee, that's a woman! That's appreciation for a man who slaves all day just for a woman's sake, and when he's so worn out that he can't move, and his ankles ache, and his stomach ain't in good shape, and the barber cut his chin three times, which may bring on blood poisoning—in fact, it feels very queer right now—then you harp and harp on the subject of my not taking you out."

No, Maria, I don't want anything but on my cuts. Leave my face alone. I hate anyone eternally picking at me—I really do. And quit that snuffling. The least little thing which happens means you turn on the water works. Indeed! This is the first night I've stayed home, and for all I care you could go without pleasure all your life. See here, Maria! I am out at night, and why? Because I am working, woman. That's the reason! Talking insurance to men I can't find during the day. Yes, I go to clubs and hotels. I have to, in my business. If I didn't hustle so much, bookee! I wouldn't need to make so much money. Maria, your language is sickening; there is no work for a lady to use and it cuts a man to hear his wife whom he guards every way, get on any of that stuff. I said it when I came in with a bun on, and told you it was some of the best in town. A woman who artfully worships things out of a person, when he is so tired and weak from overwork that he is half crazy ought to be ashamed."

I was not drunk! At the corner here I took one glass of beer to revive myself, and that is all I smelt like I had taken a bath in it! (Says Maria, I hate vulgarity.) The reason I came in quietly was in order not to disturb you, and the thanks I get are that you sit up in bed and bawl me out! I did leave my shoes outside in the hall, I admit, and I put my light overcoat in the icebox because I don't know where you keep things anyway, and it seemed a good place. Keep right on laughing, madam!

What! Perhaps I don't know that I left only one shoe and a bottle of gin in the hall and put the other shoe away in the umbrella stand, where I always hide bottles? Bah! I won't discuss it. I'll take one of those nickel torches I have to smoke so that you can wallow in luxury and sit over here and read. No, I'm not going to read the dope. I don't even know what you mean. Did I get these cigars for a nickel? Yes, I did. (By Jove, that ain't a regular lie. A fellow must tell a fib sometimes. She'd fly clear up and hit the sky if I told the truth about 'em.) Why do you turn up your nose, Maria? You know it don't make a freckled pig nose any handsomer. Your father laughed and laughed when you told him about my self-denial and my nickel cigars. He said they were 25 cents each and I must have a pull if I get 'em cheaper. Your father is a confounded meddling old idiot! Said the gang in that new club I'm in would trim me good, did he? And I ought to have some one teach me to play pool and poker?

Let me tell you, Maria, I ain't been stuck for a game since I've been in it, and counting out drinks and smokes a fellow's got to buy if he's a winner, I quit all to the good every night this week, and—well, I'm going out!

Is that so? You were only kidding? Your father hasn't been here at all! By Jove! Give me the innocent, clinging wife of my mother's time. A man could live in peace. Oh, yes. Of course, you think you've got it on me now, Maria, just because I said what I did just for fun. But a woman can never see a joke, of course.

My mother never made nasty cracks and snooped around in an underhand manner, trying to catch a man in a lie. What? You and she had a good laugh? She's the one who put you next about the cigars and said I'm my father over again, all right? Hum. Talk about a photograph! A woman's got 'em beat. Jabber, jabber forever about nothing! Rats! I sit here with a high fever from the cold I got standing in drafts, tending to business and aching all over, and when I get on my feet every step is agony, and you don't care! You don't even—Holy Moses! Is this Wednesday? Great Scott! You'll have me off my nut completely soon! Here the big Tammany parade's coming off and I've got to walk in it and carry a flag on a cane! I've got to go clear down to Battery Park district to meet the boys and march to Tammany hall. Where'll they think I am, and me one of the marshals?

The party could go to ruin for all you'd care, I s'pose. Where's my hat and coat? Who took my gloves? And gimme that 50 cents I gave you for the rent; I might need it. Spry enough on my feet to walk six miles, am I? I refuse to hand words with you, Maria! The party needs me, and I'm on the job, so! I ain't got time to argue it out now!—N. Y. Telegram.

Buined by the Humorists.

"See here," demanded the publisher of Anybody's Magazine, "don't you know that winter is over? Here's your April number with six poems about ice and snow."

"Can't help it," sighed the weary editor. "The newspaper humorists have got things at such a point that nobody will submit a poem on spring."—Chicago Sun.

A Suitable Suit.

Sharpe—Are you going to dress up for the carnival?

Muggins—Yes; I'm going as Charles the Second.

Sharpe—Charles the First would have been a lot better for you.

Muggins—Why?

Sharpe—Because you'd need no head.

Let Bygones Be Bygones.

"Times have changed," said the melancholy citizen. "Things are not what they used to be."

"Well," answered the man who takes the world as he finds it, "what do you want to do? Go back six or eight months and tend the furnace and shovel snow?"—Washington Star.

Queer Girl.

Tess—Hain't she finished that love-story yet?

Jess—No; she reads very carefully, and scrupulously, you know.

Tess—Does she?

Jess—Oh! awfully; why, she even reads all the descriptions of sunsets and all that.—Philadelphia Press.

Worse and More of It.

"Gee, but I'm unlucky!"

"What's the trouble?"

"My wife drove me out of the house with a club, and I don't dare to go back."

"Too bad."

"And now she's suing me for desertion."—Cleveland Leader.

Correct.

Teacher—What is a synonym?

Pupil—A word that has the same meaning as another word.

Teacher—And why does our language possess synonyms?

Pupil—So you can use one when you don't know how to spell the other one.—Cleveland Leader.

What They Miss.

Flats—it is said that elephants are subject to rheumatism.

Sharps—Well, they are spared one horror of the disease anyway.

Flats—What is that?

Sharps—They don't have to listen to people who have a sure cure for it.—Chicago News.

Satisfied.

"Can't see why you're so smitten with her."

"Why, because she's so deucedly pretty."

"Beauty's only skin deep."

"Well, great Scott! I'm no cannibal. That's deep enough for me!"—Cleveland Leader.

Cut Rates.

Dr. Quackerly—You don't mean to say that old Sawbones charged you $15 for amputating your arm?

The Victim—That's what he did.

Dr. Quackerly—Why in the world didn't you send for me. I'd have cut both your arms off for $10.—Chicago News.

Solved.

"Why did Mohammed go to the mountain?"

"He thought he could get better rates there than at the seashore."—Cleveland Leader.

His Modesty.

"Haven't you got a good, honest, incorruptible man in your city who would be an ornament to this office?"

"Sure, but I don't want the office."—Houston Post.

Saved Him Trouble.

"Has Dubbs made up his mind to marry that widow?"

"It wasn't necessary; she made up her mind."—Houston Post.

Rushed Him Out.

"My father says he feels as spry as when he went to college," remarked the pretty girl.

"Don't doubt it," replied her suitor. "He impressed me that he was still a college student last night."

"You don't say! In what way, Harry?"

"Why, he gave me a cane rush."—Chicago News.

From Bad to Worse.

"Mike," said Plodding Pete, as he climbed into a freight car, "I'm glad de government doesn't own de railroads."

"Why?"

"Because when we takes a free ride now de worst dat happens is to be put off. But if de government was runnin' de lines we'd be arrested for graftin' sure."—Washington Star.

At the Employment Office.

"Do you see the tall cook in the blue gingham apron? Well, ten housewives have tried her in the last ten days and she has left them all."

"Gracious! Her name must be Secret."

"Why so?"

"Because no woman can keep her."—Chicago Daily News.

Sure Cure.

"Did you see my picture in this morning's paper?" said the public man.

"No," said the wit, shrugging with laughter. "What were you cured of? Ha, ha!"

"Or vanity, after I saw the picture," answered the other sadly.—Cleveland Leader.

A Joke with a Diagram.

"You're an angel," declared the young man.

"Do you mean to tell me that I'm masculine?" haughtily inquired the girl.

N. B.—New York preachers have decided that all angels are of the male sex.—Chicago Sun.

Seclusion Necessary.

Mrs. Pamith—But how did you manage to keep that secret a whole week, dear?

Mrs. KJones—It wasn't hard. I simply stayed away from the Browning club, and when callers came I sent word that I wasn't at home.—Cleveland Leader.

His Good Advice.

"Yes, mother, I told him I was the best speller in our class at school."

"And did he give you the job?"

"To, mother, he gave me some words to spell, and I couldn't spell them. And then he said I'd better go to school for another spell."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

In the Art Gallery.

"Lovely sleeping nymph, isn't it?"

"Yes."

"Do you notice the glamour the artist has thrown over it?"

"No, I don't. But if it was mine I would throw a horse blanket over it."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Worse Yet.

Rownder—Blame the luck, anyhow! Lusher—What's the matter?

Rownder—Aw, my wife always stays up for me when I'm out late at night.

Lusher—You're lucky. Mine comes after me.—Cleveland Leader.

The Humor of It.

Ready to Oblige.

Mrs. Young—Mother says she wants to be cremated.

Mr. Young—All right—I'll attend to it at once. Call her, will you?—Cleveland Leader.

The Dominant Factor.

"The first husband eloped with her," said Miss Cayenne.

"And the second and third?"

"She eloped with them."—Washington Star.

Kind to the Limit.

"Was he kind to his family?"

"I should say he was. He couldn't have been kinder if he had been an insurance president."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Popular Novelist.

"I hear you are at work on a new novel."

"Yes."

"Who is to bring it out?"

"I don't know yet. The highest bonus I have been offered so far is only $70,000, and unless the publishers show an inclination to be more liberal I may burn it. I can't afford to cheapen my work in the estimation of the public."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Disgusting Stupidity.

"Well, well, well!" said the disgusted politician, throwing down his paper. "They've gone and nominated Bullfinch for congress!"

"Mr. Rufus Bullfinch?" asked his wife.

"Yes."

"Why, he's a good man, isn't he? I've always heard people speak well of him."

"That's just it. We could have won here this fall with anybody."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Good Man Gone.

Cholly—I say, old chap—is it true that youah wife has—er—eloped with your valet?

Ferdy—Ya-as. Disgustin', isn't it?

Cholly—Cheer up, me boy—don't take it to heart, y' know.

Ferdy—But, confound it, where am I to find another such valet?—Cleveland Leader.

No Chance.

Friend—Going to convict that burglar?

Prosecutor—It can't be done.

Friend—Why, the evidence seems plain enough.

Prosecutor—Yes; but the house he robbed was occupied by the president of a life insurance company.—Chicago Sun.

The Only Hope.

Mrs. Whoopler—You tell me, Herr Vogleschnitzel, that my daughter can never become a singer! Is there no hope for her?

Herr Vogleschnitzel—Vell, matam, you might put her on a diet of canary-seed, alreitty, undt see vat dot vill do mit her.—Puck.

Always the Contrary.

Sharp—What do you think of Gaylord from a moral point of view?

Blunt—Well, I don't know much about him, but his wife says he is positively wicked.

Sharp—Huh! In that case he must be an angel.—Chicago Daily News.

Principles of Medicine.

Esculapius was founding the science of medicine.

"Boys," he observed, "are only sick on school days, while the relatives of cooks are always ill on holidays."

With this simple axiom he entered on his practice.—N. Y. Sun.

That's Different.

"So," said the tourist, "you don't like it in the wheat belt?"

"Nossir," replied the tramp. "Work is too hard ter get—"

"Eh?"

"—erway from."—Chicago Sun.

After Worms.

"Why did you fly down so close to that man reading on the bench?" asked the mother robin of her offspring.

"Somebody told me it was a book-worm," replied the hungry young bird.—Yonkers Statesman.

Combination Changed.

Patience—I thought you said Will had the key to your heart?

Patrice—So he had; but since I met all those men at the beach, this summer, I think he's lost the combination.—Yonkers Statesman.

Clever Scheme.

Mrs. Teller—Mrs. DeSpurge told me that the new residence they're building has five entrances.

Mr. Teller—Well, when the wolf arrives that'll keep him guessing for awhile.—Puck.

THE BRIDE'S TASK.

Mr. Justwed—Now that we are married, dear, you have a serious task before you.

Mrs. Justwed—What's that, George?

Mr. Justwed—You must prove to my sisters that you are worthy of me.—Topeka State Journal.

Worse Still.

Some sigh for days that are no more, But not for them do I lament; The ones I regret are those Which come too often, like the rent.—N. Y. Sun.

The Straight Tip.

Talkative Individual—Walter! And how is it, then, that you're not allowed to take tips? Eh?

Walter—Customers object, sir!

Accounted For.

Landlady—I think very highly of these eggs.

Starboard—Ah, heirlooms in your family?—N. Y. Sun.

Her Point of View.

Husband—When it comes to money matters two heads are better than one.

Wife—Yes, they could wear more hats.—N. Y. Sun.

JOKING CHIEF

Jestingly Wired for Money and Was Told to Pick His Way Home.

Yesterday morning a telegram was received by the local police department from Chief James Collins who is at Hot Springs, Ark., attending the annual convention of the Police Chiefs National Association. The chief sent the message as a joke, but it was turned on him. In his dispatch he said, "am broke; send me some money." Former Detective William E. Baker quickly fixed up a response which said, "no money in city treasury; blackberry season now here, pick your way home."

The chief is always possessor of a roll big enough to do for a dozen, but if he should happen to go broke he could get little consolation out of the blackberry message.

BLUE LAW AGAINST BRIDGE

Pittsburg Prosecutor Threatens to Enforce the Forgotten Act.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 14.—Bridge whist, euchre and other card clubs where prominent society men and women gather to risk money on these seemingly harmless games may soon be a thing of the past in this city, according to District Attorney Robert E. Stewart, who says it is nothing but plain gambling and he is going to stop it.

The brave and fearless man manages to get there early and thus avoids the rush.

SCannibals are naturally tender-hearted—at least, they are fond of their fellow men.

LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF

Mrs. Ad Rasch has issued invitations for a card party next Wednesday afternoon at her home on Ninth and Broadway.

A cake and cady sale will today be given at Miss Zula Cobb's millinery store by Mrs. Frank Parham's Sunday school class of the First Christian church.

The house builders of this city are preparing to sign up with the carpenters union, the new schedule of wages to be paid the latter the coming year by the contractors.

Grocer Frank Block of Fourth and Broad, has sold his place to T. Lieberman.

Cashier Neel Indicted.

Owensboro, Ky., April 12.—(Special.)—The grand jury today returned two indictments against Estill W. Neel, former cashier of the Stanley Bank. One of the indictments charges him with making a false entry in the books, while the other charges him with converting to his own use, with felonious intent $4,000. Neel may be tried at this term of court.

Plead Guilty to Criminal Libel.

Editor J. E. Chittenden, of the Crittenden Record, and Postmaster H. C. McCord, of Hampton, who were indicted for libel by the Livingston county grand jury for their connection with the circular which was printed and circulated during the campaign of 1905, in which the character of Judge Thos. Evans was assailed, appeared in court Monday at Smithland and plead guilty to the charge and were each fined $200 and costs.—Crittenden Press.

Charge of Abducting a Young Girl.

Hopkinsville, Ky., April 13.—A letter has been received here by Chief of Police Roper from Richard Simpson of 1670 Maiden Lane, Louisville, asking that his daughter, Ethelen, be recovered from a house of ill-fame to which he claims she was sent by a woman who had abducted her from her home. Simpson says his daughter is only 14 years of age, but large for her age. He says he is totally blind and that the girl was his only help, and he further depended upon her to lead him about. The name of the woman who is charged with abducting the girl was not given in the letter. The houses of ill-repute here are located outside the city limits, and the police, therefore, had not authority to act in the case. The letter was turned over to the county authorities, and they are now engaged in investigating the case, and will take every step possible under the law to reclaim the girl, should she be here, and to restore her to her afflicted father.

If a man can't stand property, he should sit down and give his wife a chance.
